

Employee Safety

Policy Statement

Refer to UGA's Environmental Safety Division and the Policy Procedures section.

UGA Procedures

The University shall establish a comprehensive program of employee safety to ensure that employees are provided safe working conditions and that every employee performing hazardous work assignments receives safety training on a regularly scheduled basis. New employees receive basic Hazard Communication "Right to Know" training as part of the Onboarding System. Departments are responsible for providing specific safety training as necessary.

Record Retention

Related information

UGA Right to Know Plan 2023

Georgia Department of Labor Right-to-Know Poster \(Updated\)

Board of Regents Environmental Health & Safety and Right-to-Know Program

Responsibilities

Responsible University Senior Administrator: Environmental Safety Division

Responsible University Administrator: Environmental Safety Division

Policy Owner: Environmental Safety Division

Policy Contact: Environmental Safety Division

Contact Information: (706) 542-0108

Policy Dates

Effective Date:

Date Last Updated: 7/17/2023